

Contract of Sale

1 Preamble

This contract dictates the terms of a transfer of ownership by a Seller to Robert Ashley Ham of the Seller's Soul.

2 Definitions

For the purposes of this contract, the term "Seller" refers to the person named below as Seller in the Signatures section. The term "Buyer" refers to Robert Ashley Ham, both body and Soul. The term "Property" refers to the Seller's Soul, as defined below in section 2.3.

2.1 The Common Reality

The "Common Reality" is defined as the universe as perceived through the five senses of touch, sight, hearing, smell and taste, and any inferral made by use of those senses with any instrument of detection.

2.2 Outside of the Common Reality

Outside of the Common Reality is defined any extra-dimensional plane, higher plane of existence, any place or state of existence hinted at by common anecdotes of out-of-body or near-death experiences and any other place or state of existence of the Seller's Soul before or after the death of the Seller's physical body, be they detectable or undetectable within the Common Reality. Some examples of possible forms of an outside of the Common Reality are Heaven and Hell.

2.3 Soul

The "Soul" of the Seller is defined as any non-physical thing of any nature that inhabits or is bound in any way to the Seller's physical body. The nature of the Soul is undefined but is expected to relate in some way to the "consciousness" or "mind" of the Seller. The Soul may exist in or out of the Common Reality. The Soul does not include the physical matter that comprises the Seller's body as it is currently understood by man-kind. If, however, it is discovered in the future that the Soul is comprised of matter, energy or any other form of existing thing which also comprises the physical matter of the body of the Seller, the Soul will also refer to the physical body and so the physical body will be included in the transfer of ownership defined in this contract. An example of such a discovery would be the revelation that thought, emotion, consciousness, etc, and the fundamental particles with spin of $\frac{1}{2}$ are comprised of even smaller particles and that these particles comprise both the physical matter of the Seller's body and the Seller's Soul.

2.4 Ownership

Ownership of the Seller's Soul is defined as any any possible control of, influence over, possession of, power to instruct, or any other power over the Soul; any form of power to put the Soul in place of the Buyer's or any other Soul in order to perform any necessary obligation of duty or experience; possession of any rights of access to the Soul; and possession of any rights to experience or command, or any other rights given to the Soul by any entity with such power. Any obligations associated with the Soul are not included with ownership and the owner is not required to fulfil any such obligations.

3 Terms and conditions

3.1 Ownership

The Buyer will have sole ownership of the Property from the moment of the signing of this contract by both Buyer and Seller until the end of the existence of the Property or the moment that the Buyer relinquishes ownership. The Buyer will have full rights to sell, trade or give away ownership of the Property at his discretion. The Buyer will have full rights to lend or rent the Property to any entity for any rate. If temporary ownership is granted to another, by means of rent or lending, the Buyer will regain ownership after the temporary ownership has expired. The Buyer will have full rights to divide ownership by any division deemed possible and sell, lend or rent the resultant shares at any price or rate.

3.2 Payment

The Seller will receive the payment labelled Payment for Sale below in the Signatures section from the Buyer. Payment must be within 2 days of the signing of this contract by both Buyer and Seller and hence the transfer of ownership of the Property. Failure of this condition to be met will render the contract null and void. There are no restrictions on the form of payment.

3.3 Conditions of termination

This agreement cannot be terminated except at the discretion of the owner of the Property. Termination of the agreement will take the form of the willful and intentional destruction of any copy of this contract by the owner of the Property while not under duress. The existence of this contract is not conditional to the ownership of the Property; once it has been signed, its existence or non-existence cannot effect the ownership of the Property or the agreement detailed herein in any way.

3.4 Disclosure

Both Buyer and Seller may disclose any or all parts of this agreement to whomever they wish at any point and without prior consent from the other.

3.5 Precautionary clarifications

1. Future discovery of a Soul and the revelation of its equivalence with any known or currently unknown property of the Seller's physical body does not negate any part of this contract.
2. The existence of the Soul within the Common Reality does not negate any part of this contract.
3. Destruction of all copies of this contract does not mean termination of the agreement.
4. The Seller has no come-back after the signing of this contract.
5. If any part of the definition of ownership, as defined in section 2.4, is found to be unworkable or impossible due to the nature of existence in or out of the Common Reality, it shall not effect or negate any other part of either that definition or any other part of this agreement.

4 Signatures

Payment for Sale

	Buyer	Seller	Witness
Full Name (please print)	Robert Ashley Ham
Date of Birth	22nd Feb 1981
Signature			